

Identifying your professional and soft skills in order to be hired in the private sector on a national and international level. What job opportunities awaits you after your Phd?

Intervenant : Julie Lombard, Career Development Counselor at APEC (Association pour l'Emploi des Cadres)

Public concerné : tout public

Nombre de participants : average of 30 PhD students

Calendrier :

DATE	HORAIRE
MAPRIL 17TH 2019	9h00 - 11h00

Definition : Considering alternative careers for PhD students? One of the most difficult decisions for any PhD student is whether or not to pursue a career in academia. In order to make this decision, you first need to understand what other alternative careers for PhD students are out there.

This presentation will permit you to have a broader view of the opportunities that are available in the world of business and industry.

Prerequisite : No prerequisite, participants can bring / are invited to bring their own laptop

Skills acquired : You will learn what to expect and how to transition into the workforce in order to identify more clearly what does and does not matter once you get your PhD. You will also learn how to do an effective job search by using the different tools available to you (CV styles, interviewing techniques, networking...).
